

OS Map 1964

Footpaths in green - note how the footpath includes the Winding Lane and connects with the coastal path, which, as yet, does not officially cross Minack land.

The entrance to Oliver Land today is a little further on than where this 'entrance' used to be and if you are observant you can still make it out today.

Interestingly the footpath on Oliver Land follows Blackthorn Alley and then continues up into the next field